

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS:
2024 & 2025 WRITER-AND/OR STORYTELLER-IN-RESIDENCE
Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture
University of Manitoba

A professional writer and/or storyteller is sought for the position of Writer/Storyteller-in-Residence at the University of Manitoba's Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture. The three-month residencies, taking place in the fall and winter, will require the successful candidate to spend approximately 16 hours per week providing mentorship and practical artistic advice to developing writers and storytellers at the University of Manitoba, to give a limited number of readings and/or performances on campus, and to lead an informal non-credit workshop. The remaining time is to be devoted to the writer or storyteller's own artistic projects. The successful candidate will receive a salary of $15,000.00 CAD (subject to all mandatory deductions.) plus rent-free accommodation and transportation to Winnipeg and return.

The Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture is an interdisciplinary Centre with a mandate to promote the creation and the study of the verbal arts, both oral and written. Located at the University of Manitoba in the city of Winnipeg, the Centre sponsors readings, lectures, master classes and creative community projects that explore the connections between oral and written culture. Winnipeg is renowned for its vibrant arts community and its multicultural citizenry, including the largest urban population of Indigenous people in North America. The Centre builds upon these local cultural strengths as a basis for its creative and critical work. To learn more about the Centre, visit umanitoba.ca/centres/ccwoc/.

Applications should include a covering letter summarizing the applicant's qualifications for the position and describing the artistic and mentoring work they would undertake during the residency. Applications must also include a CV or résumé of career achievements (publications, performances, awards, residencies), a writing sample* of no more than 20 pages (double-spaced and typed in a standard 12-point font) and two letters of reference discussing the applicant's skills as an artist and a mentor. Storytellers are encouraged to submit links to their performance videos.

Candidates of all nationalities are encouraged to apply; however, preference will be given to Canadian applicants. Full proficiency in English is required, and publications or performance credits in English would be an asset. The Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture is committed to principles of employment equity. The application deadline is Monday, October 16th, 2023.

Electronic submissions will be accepted at the Centre's email address, ccwoc@umanitoba.ca. Attachments must be in Microsoft Word, PDF. *Hard copies of materials will not be accepted.

The University of Manitoba is committed to the principles of equity, diversity & inclusion and to promoting opportunities in hiring, promotion and tenure (where applicable) for systemically marginalized groups who have been excluded from full participation at the University and the larger community including Indigenous Peoples, women, racialized persons, persons with disabilities and those who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+ (Two Spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, questioning, intersex, asexual and other diverse sexual identities). All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

If you require accommodation supports during the recruitment process, please contact UM.Accommodation@umanitoba.ca or 204-474-7195. Please note this contact information is for accommodation reasons only.

Application materials, including letters of reference, will be handled in accordance with the protection of privacy provision of The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (Manitoba). Please note that curriculum vitae may be provided to participating members of the search process.